Why Choose SCAC

An Arbitral Organisation with a Global Outlook.

A Respected Arbitral Institution with a Record of Enforcement.

An independent, professional and long - standing arbitration institution in Vietnam for the settlement of domestic disputes and disputes with foreign elements by arbitration and mediation.

There are ten [10] compelling reasons why parties whether before, during or after a dispute arises, are typically considered to choose SCAC:

[1]. Throughout the dispute resolution process, SCAC consistently ensures the following elements: Speed, Transparency, Flexibility, Efficiency, Convenience, Confidentiality, Friendly Approach and Credibility;

[2]. A large, knowledgeable, impartial and outstanding team of arbitrators: Depending on the nature of the case, the disputing parties have a range of suitable options regarding the choice of arbitrator;

[3]. Multi-disciplinary dispute resolution;

[4]. Reasonable costs, appropriate service fees;

[5]. In disputes involving with foreign elements, the parties may select the language of the proceedings from five options: Vietnamese, English, Chinese, Japanese, French, or Korean; They may also choose the governing law for the dispute from the legal systems of Australia, the United States, Japan, Singapore, or South Korea;

[6]. Dispute resolution through the application of technology, SCAC offers the option of resolving matters either online or in-person at its premises.

In addition to the reasons mentioned above, the disputing parties also choose SCAC for its following general reasons:

[1]. SCAC may conduct hearings in private, ensuring that the details of the dispute remain confidential and do not compromise the reputation or sensitive information of the disputing parties;

[2]. SCAC awards are final and binding, take effect immediately;

[3]. SCAC awards have been enforced by domestic enforcement authorities in the same manner as civil judgments and they are rarely subject to requests for review by the disputing parties;

[4]. SCAC awards are also recognized and enforceable in over 150 countries and territories that are parties to the 1958 New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards.

And above all, SCAC is a reliable commercial arbitration institution at both the national and regional levels.
